Bellevue nurse's license suspended indefinitely over mental health concerns

OLYMPIA — The Washington State Nursing Care Quality Assurance Commission and the Washington State Department of Health have indefinitely suspended the license of Bellevue licensed practical nurse Jenelia Radacina (LP00050670), because she is unable to safely practice due to mental health issues.

Radacina's license was originally suspended in January 2011. She requested a hearing, which was set for September 23, 2011. However, she did not attend the hearing, prompting the commission to indefinitely suspend her license.
